

April 4, 2022

York College of Pennsylvania has received funding from the U.S. Department of Education's American Recovery Plan Act (ARP): Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund III, which addresses the impact of the COVID-19 situation on institutions of higher education.

Below, please find additional information regarding the Act and its implementation on our campus.

1. York College of Pennsylvania acknowledges that President Pamela Gunter-Smith signed and returned to the Department both the Funding Certification and Agreement [for] Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students Under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act Funding and the Certification and Agreement for the Institutional Portion of the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF) Formula Grants Authorized by Section 18004(a) (1) of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act. An additional acknowledgment was not required under ARP since President Gunter-Smith provided this acknowledgment under the CARES Act. York College of Pennsylvania will use no less than the required amount received under the ARP program to provide Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students.
2. York College of Pennsylvania has access to $4,497,276 under the ARP program from the Department of Education pursuant to the College's Certification and Agreement [for] Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students. As of April 4, 2022, the College had drawn $3,358,840 of these funds.
3. As of April 4, 2022, the College had distributed $3,358,840 to students under the ARP program.
4. At the College, there are an estimated 3,730 students eligible to participate in programs under Section 484 in Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965 and thus eligible to receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students under the ARP program.
5. As of April 4, 2022, 2,598 students had received an Emergency Financial Aid Grant to students under the ARP program.
6. The College has spent significant time developing the optimum program methodology and is using a multi-faceted approach to distribute Emergency Financial Aid Grants. An opt-in/application method, a method of identifying PELL grant recipients for further grants, and also having students complete a worksheet/request for additional special circumstance consideration.
  - *Full-time students completing the opt-in/application will be eligible for $650 while part-time students completing the opt-in/application will be eligible for $325.
  - *$2,000 to students enrolled during the fall 2021 semester that received a Federal Pell Grant disbursement and $2,000 to first time institutionally enrolled students for the spring 2021 semester.
  - *The College has made funds available to students demonstrating exceptional need outside of the prescribed formula used for initial grant awards. Students are submitting Special Circumstance applications/worksheets requesting funds for additional assistance to the Financial Assistance Office. Assistance is granted based on a review of the submitted document(s) by the Financial Assistance Office.
7. Students received instructions/directions/guidance via email and mass campus portal announcement in which the College notified them of the opportunity to apply for a grant by completing an opt-in/application. The application is currently closed. The student invitation to apply is enclosed. The College also made a campus portal announcement along with a supplemental email to students regarding the opportunity for a special circumstance review. Attached is a copy of the College's Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund III Student Special Circumstances Request Worksheet. The College has sent emails and posted a campus portal announcement to students identified as PELL grant recipients notifying them of additional Emergency Financial Aid Grants in January 2022 for the fall 2021 semester and March 2022 for the spring 2022 semester.

The American Rescue Plan Act of 2021: Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF III)

York College of Pennsylvania understands that economic hardship and changes in family circumstances continue to be a reality for most families and we invite all undergraduate students to submit an application for a student grant through the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF III).

The American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 was signed into law on March 11, 2021 and funds were appropriated to the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF) as a response to coronavirus. York College of Pennsylvania has been allocated funding, as part of this Act, to be used for student grants and prioritize the allocation of funds to undergraduate students with exceptional need. These grants may be used to help defray student expenses associated with tuition, fees, food, housing, health care or for emergency costs that arise due to coronavirus (i.e. testing or treatment).
